

Required Reading for All Registrants – see program specific info below

Penn Legacy Futures Program

Please read the information below before registering.

Additional detailed information about this program is posted on the Penn Legacy Futures website which is dedicated specifically to the players in this program. Please refer to that during the season.

Information

- Adherence to the Player/Parent Code of Conduct on page 2 is required.
- Volunteers provide this program for your youth - please consider how YOU can help!
- Team rostering is a delicate balancing act - attempting to balance the combination of skills, abilities, ages, schools and volunteer coaches.
- Club-wide fundraisers may be held in the fall and spring. Participation by all families is needed.
- It is important to read lightning safety and concussion info on the resources page of our website.

General Program Information

- Recreational Program Registration is held in May for the Fall Season and in January for the Spring Season.
- Registration is open to all children without residency restrictions.
- Please include your email address with your registration to receive information regarding your child's registration and other Club programs.
- Players will need a size 3 soccer ball, shinguards and water. A t-shirt will be provided each season.
- All checks are payable to Penn Legacy.
- Continue to page 2 - Parent/Player Code

Penn Legacy Rec Program

Please read the information below before registering.

Additional detailed info regarding the program is on the Penn Legacy Rec website. Please refer to that during the season.

Information

- Adherence to the Player/Parent Code of Conduct on page 2 is required.
- Volunteers provide this program for your youth - please consider how YOU can help!
- Only requests for same-age group siblings will be honored; please do not ask.
- Team rostering is a delicate balancing act - attempting to balance the combination of skills, abilities, ages, schools and volunteer coaches.
- Club-wide fundraisers may be held in the fall and spring. Participation by all families is needed.
- It is important to read lightning safety and concussion info on the resources page of our website.

General Program Information

- Recreational Program Registration is held in May for the Fall Season and January for the Spring Season.
- Registration is open to all children U10 through U19 without residency restrictions.
- U19 age group is now coed.
- Girls League Rules for U15 and up: girls who play soccer on a middle school team are allowed to play on a U15 Girls Rec team. High School girls are allowed to play on both a school team and U19 COED team at the same time. High school girls are not allowed to play on both the High school team and LAGS league at the same time, if LAGS has a U19 girls only agegroup.
- Please include your email address with your registration to receive information regarding your child's registration and other Penn Legacy programs.
- Players will need to provide a size 4 (U10/12) or size 5 (U15 and up) soccer ball, socks, shinguards and water.
- Continue to page 2 – Parent/Player Code of Conduct

Required Reading for All Registrants

Player & Parent Code of Conduct – All Recreational Programs

Players:

1. Players will refrain from using all inappropriate language during games and practices.
2. Players will not engage in disparaging dialogue with referees, teammates, coaches, opponents or spectators.
3. Players will not, under any circumstances, participate in physical violence or threats thereof during any game or practice.
4. Players are prohibited from the use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or tobacco products.
5. Property damage during away games or while attending a game or practice will result in suspension from the team and full restitution to the property owner by players and/or parents.
6. Players will make every attempt to notify the coach prior to missing a game or practice.

Parents:

1. Parents agree to support the Club in requiring players to abide by the Player Code of Conduct.
2. Parents will refrain from verbal abuse of players, coaches, referees, opponents and spectators.
3. Parents will discuss constructive concerns regarding coach, players or Club policy with the coach first, then the Coordinator and finally through the Club's VP of the Program.
4. Parents must understand that they too are representatives of the Club and will treat all opposing players and parents and officials with respect.

Player and Parents:

Please read and discuss the information above together. In doing so, both agree to abide and follow the above Player/Parent Code of Conduct.

The Club has a zero-tolerance policy for violations of this Code. Players and parents may be subject to suspension from Club programs and/or removal from events.